

Thailand News

February 2017

CONTENTS

- Project 1: (Un)fashion Dining (Shop & Café, Bangkok)
- Project 2: Woo Café (Restaurant & shop, Chiang Mai)

1. (UN)FASHION DINING

Project Overview

(Un)fashion Dining is a hip vintage shop-cum-cafe located in Ekamai mall. Set in a wood-heavy space, the restaurant has a chill, beach-y vibe and serves a wide range of homemade dishes. The shop section specializes in new home décor items imported from the US and Japan.

Project Details

1. Type of Business: Shop and restaurant
2. Open Date: 09/2016
3. Concept: Restaurant set in a vintage store.
4. Location: Ekamai Shopping Mall, Ekamai Soi 10, Bangkok
5. Website: www.facebook.com/unFASHIONVINTAGE

Location map

The café & store is located in Ekamai shopping mall on Ekamai Soi 10.

The restaurant was designed to resemble the inside of a house in Portland, Oregon.

The interior has a rustic vibe and is basked in natural light.

Shoppers can choose from a variety of American brands, including Broder Bros, L.L.Bean, Saks Fifth Avenue, Polo, Sperry, Nantica and Coolway.

2. WOO CAFÉ & ART GALLERY

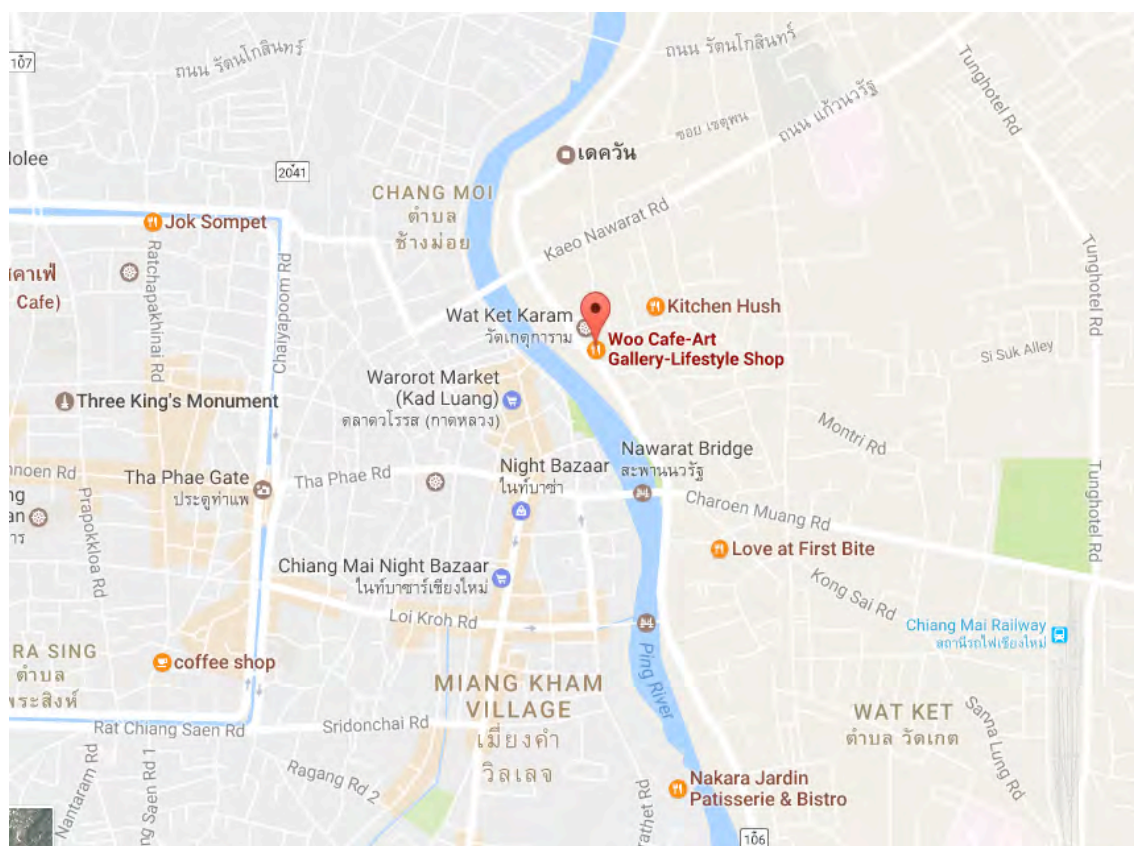

Project Overview

The popular Wat Ket neighborhood on the banks of the Ping River in Chiang Mai, northern Thailand, is home to many boutique hotels, handicraft stores, art galleries and eateries like Woo Café & Art Gallery. Currently ranked number 5 under the 'Places To Eat Within Chiang Mai' category on Tripadvisor, the café is one of the coolest and most happening places in Chiang Mai right now. A café, dining space, gallery and a lifestyle shop rolled into one, the interior has an inviting lush green full of plants and artworks adorning the walls. Adjacent are an art gallery and store that sells art pieces by local and international artists and a ceramics store which sells a wide variety of home décor items.

Project Details

1. Type of Business: Restaurant, shop and art gallery
2. Open Date: 2014, with store recently added.
3. Concept: Complex with café, dining space, gallery and a lifestyle shop.
4. Location: Charoenrat Road, Wat Gate, Chiang Mai
5. Website: www.woochiangmai.com

Location map

Woo Café & Art Gallery is located in the popular Wat Ket neighborhood on the banks of the Ping River, home to many boutique hotels, handicraft stores, art galleries and eateries.

The interior has an inviting lush green full of plants and artworks adorning the walls.

The complex also houses an art gallery and ceramics store.

On display at the art gallery is a curated selection of Thai fine artists, while the artisan craft shop sells a mish-mash of home décor products and fashion.

