

Thailand News

February 2018

CONTENTS

- Project 1: Lhong 1919 (Mixed-use development, Bangkok)

1. LHONG 1919

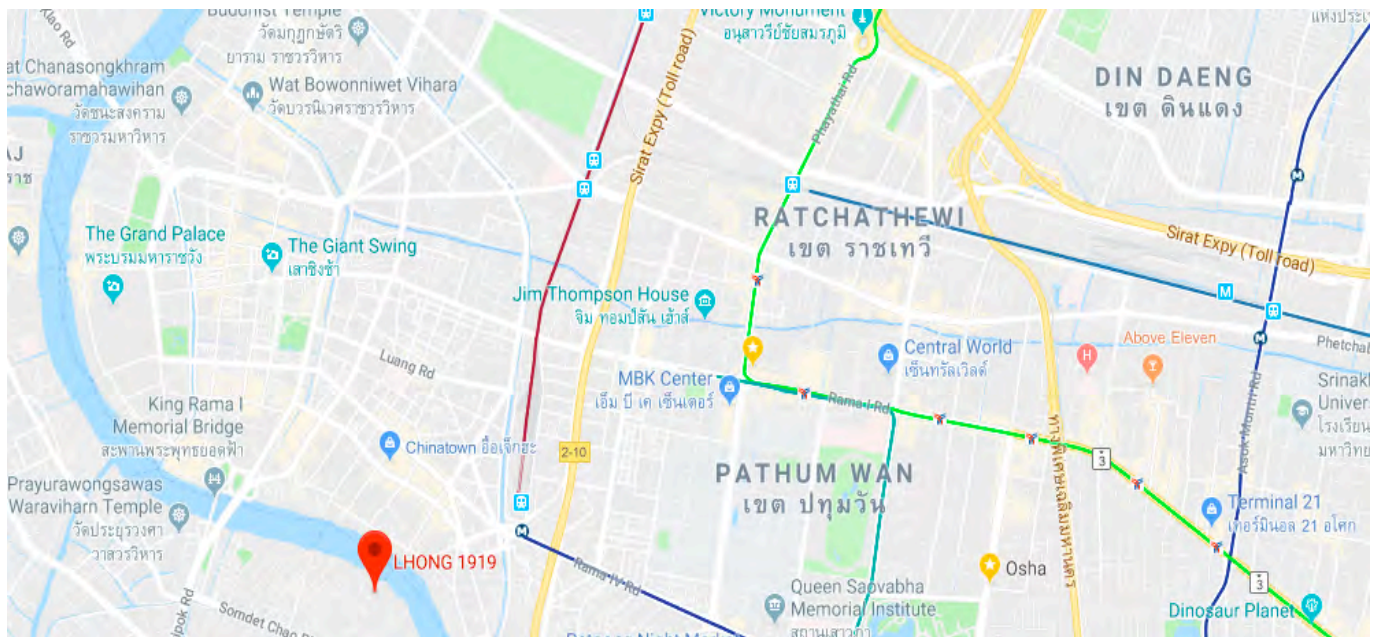

Project Overview

Lhong 1919 is a mixed-used project and the latest hotspot for Bangkokians wanting to spend a leisurely weekend afternoon in a riverfront setting. Situated in a reclaimed group of old warehouses, the 6,800-sqm venue comprises a co-working space, eateries and art and design shops showcasing the work of young artists. The complex also contains a Chinese shrine dating back to King Rama IV (1851-1868). Visitors will find 8 locally owned shops including Zettino (men's leather goods), Hummingbird (decorated plants) and Studio (Chinese-style furniture), among others as well as several restaurants and cafes.

Project Details

1. Type of Business: Mixed-use development
2. Open Date: 11/2017
3. Location: Chiang Mai Road, Bangkok
4. Owners: Thai-Chinese family Wanglee
5. Interior Designer: PIA (Thailand), www.piainterior.com
6. Website: www.facebook.com/lhong1919

Location map

Lhong 1919 is located across the river from central Bangkok, not far from Charoenkrung Road (Chinatown).

The main 2-storey complex forms a U around a vast courtyard, offering visitors a look at post-Ming dynasty Chinese architecture which were designed with the principles of Feng Shui in mind.

Riverside restaurant Rong Si.

