Participation in the International Real Estate Event MAPIC Cannes 2025

MAPIC is an international real estate event that brings together companies and developers from around the world.

GARDE, leveraging its global presence, participated in the event in Cannes, France, with representatives from its Italian and Dubai branches , along with its Tokyo headquarters.

Recognized as the leading global platform for creating vibrant retail and urban tourism destinations, MAPIC attracts experts from over 75 countries across the retail, real estate, food, and leisure sectors.

At the GARDE booth, we had a valuable opportunity to exchange insights on the future of retail, hospitality, and experiential placemaking. GARDE will continue to engage with the latest trends and innovations in the industry, expanding opportunities for further exploration.
