GARDE Actively Participated in International Event “MAPIC”

Once again, GARDE returned to Cannes, France, for the annual event, MAPIC, which it has faithfully attended every year. MAPIC serves as the premier global platform for shaping vibrant commercial real estate and urban tourism destinations. This international retail real estate market event draws professionals from the retail, real estate, food, and leisure sectors, representing over 75 countries.

GARDE reaffirms its commitment to staying abreast of the latest trends and innovations in the retail and leisure industries, continually seeking out new opportunities for exploration and growth.
